FRANK TERUGGI

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised during September 1-3, 1971, that the Committee of Returned Volunteers (CRV), held a national conference at Allenspark, Colorado during the period of August 27-30, 1971. This conference was described as "Conference on Anti-Imperialists Strategy and Action," and approximately two hundred persons attended this conference, the majority of whom were representatives of various leftist-type groups throughout North America. The name Frank Teruggi appeared on a list which indicated that Frank Teruggi had attended the above conference as a delegate.

CRV is a national group composed primarily of returned Peace Corps volunteers who espouse support of Cuba and all Third World revolutionaries and oppose United States "Imperialism and Oppression" abroad.

A news letter dated August, 1971, issued by the Chicago Area Group on Latin America (CAGLA), 800 West Belden, Chicago, Illinois, set forth that FRANK TERUGGI, a member of the CAGLA, would be going to Santiago, Chile in October, 1971.

The Chicago Area Group on Latin America, also known as the Chicago Action Group for the Liberation of the Americas, acts as the Midwest Regional Center for the collection and distribution to the North American leftist press of material emphasizing the Latin American revolutionary struggle.

The December, 1971 issue of the NAAIC news letter, the official publication of the North American Anti-Imperialist Coalition (NAAIC), set forth the following position statement:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency, nor duplicated within your agency.

ENCLOSURE 100-474363-2

FRANK TERUGGI

We, the NAAIC, agree to work together in the international struggle against imperialism, which we view as a class struggle. We agree to work through:

1. Material and propaganda support for liberation movements among oppressed peoples in the imperialist system;
2. Campaigns against corporate, government, and militaristic oppressors within the imperialist system;
3. Research, study, political education and dissemination of information; in order to further the socialist revolution.

In joining this coalition, member groups agree to work in one or more of these areas. Recognizing that there are other areas of work in the anti-imperialist struggle, we agree that these areas form the basis of the NAAIC.

The NAAIC news letter lists the Chicago Action Group for the Liberation of the Americas as one of the member groups of the NAAIC.

Confidential informants advised during December, 1972, that they were not acquainted with Frank Teruggi.

On December 7, 1972, Special Clerk Gertrude Pach checked the records of the Chicago, Illinois Police Department and no record of Frank Teruggi was located.
